Rules of the Event	Foursomes is a stroke competition played by a team of two players using one ball. Each player tees off on alternate holes, one on odd-numbered holes and the other on even-numbered holes. The partner plays the second stroke and thereafter the ball is struck alternatively until holed. The team that completes the round in the least strokes is the winner of the gross event. In the nett event the handicap is deducted from the gross score. The handicap is ½ the aggregate handicap of both players, and the team that completes the round in the least nett strokes is the nett winner. Notes: (a) Prior to the commencement of play, the players determine which tee they will hit from – odds or even. The player who hits off on the 1st hole continues to tee-off on the odd holes for the entire round, while their partner tees-off on all even holes.

	(b) If a player hits into an unplayable hazard or OOB, then a penalty is incurred as per the rules of golf. The player's partner must play the next shot. (c) If it is necessary to play a provisional ball, or a second ball from the tee, the ball must be hit from the same place as the original ball and by the player whose turn it is to hit the second shot. (d) In the event of a tie for the nett prize, the countback procedure will determine the winners. For this event, the best score for the last 9 holes on the card shall be used. If there is still a tie, the last six holes, if still, the last 3 holes. If a tie persists, then hole by hole from the 18th hole backwards. (e) In the event of a tie for the gross (Board event) prize there will be a sudden death playoff on the 18th hole. Play will repeat on the 18th hole until a winner is determined. The player who has previously hit off the even tees will continue to hit off the 18th tee until a winner is determined.
