Rules of the Event	Foursomes is a stroke competition played by a team of two players using one ball. Each player tees off on alternate holes, one on odd-numbered holes and the other on even-numbered holes. The partner plays the second stroke and thereafter the ball is struck alternatively until holed. The team that completes the round in the least strokes is the winner of the gross event. In the nett event, the handicap is deducted from the gross score. The handicap is ½ the aggregate handicap of both players, and the team that completes the round in the least net strokes is the net winner. Notes: (a) Even years i.e. 2018 – Men must tee off on even numbered holes. Odd years i.e. 2019 - Men must tee off on odd numbered holes. (b) If a player hits into an unplayable hazard or OOB, then a penalty is incurred as per the rules of golf. The player's partner must play the next shot. (c) If it is necessary to play a provisional ball, or a second ball from the tee, the ball must be hit from the same place as the original ball and by the player whose turn it is to hit the second shot. (d) In the event of a tie in the nett event, the countback procedure will determine the winners. For this event, the best score for the last 9 holes on the card shall be used. If there is still a tie, the last six holes, if still, the

If a tie persists, then hole by hole from the 18th hole backwards. (e) In the event of a tie in the gross event, there will be a sudden death playoff on the 18th hole with the man teeing off if it is an even year i.e. 2018 and the woman teeing off if it is an odd year. The playoff will continue on the 18th hole until a winner is determined with the same player teeing off as the first playoff hole i.e. Man in 2018.
