New Rules are in

The new golf rules from the R&A have been in for nearly a week and we've had some mixed feedback.

Leaving the flag in to putt seems to have been met with great approval. The size of our greens allows a group to generally get off the green quicker as players are able to putt without waiting for a partner to tend the flag.

Confusion reigns when you have your first drop from knee height, firstly remembering to do it, and secondly when deciding the appropriate squatting method!

We're interested in hearing how you've all dealt with and understood these changes.

So please provide us with some commentary on your experiences via email to club@sanctuarylakesclub.com.au

A sleeve of balls will be awarded to the best comments!

If you need any clarification do not hesitate in asking any of the golf shop staff to assist!
