AUSSIE AUSSIE AUSSIE OI! OI! OI!

“Look on the back of your club’s, there’s instructions on how to use them!”

So said victorious Australian Captain Taegen “I’m gunna bury you” Dodds following a close fought 15 -14 Aussie victory to go back to back in the Annual Greg Norman Cup.

Arguably the best event on our calendar, 120 Members with birth places all over the globe participated in the Us versus Them 4BBB Matchplay event.

A deflated ROW Skipper Brandon Springbok Dodds bowed his head in defeat as the result was announced. Triumphant in his four ball, it was not enough to get the away team home overall.

The Captain’s final duty is to pass the mantle on to another member for next year.. stay tuned for the announcement..

Charlie Pagano continued his reign with another best dressed effort, as did the questionably attired Ricky Stewart who came as B1 of bananas in pyjamas fame, each scored $100 to spend in the pro shop.

A big shout out to the biggest winning margins on both teams. These pairs must have been very keen to get back to the clubhouse early, and have earnt $100 onto their golf shop account.

Links Trophy and Matchplay

The first Round of the Prestigious Links Trophy and some of the Graded Matchplay have been played with the Links Trophy down to the final 4, and matches still to be played in the Women's version.

Bottom seed Alex Franklin put betting markets in a spin when he knocked out top seed and Club champ Mark Grimsditch! He now takes on Johan Gwee for a place in the final. On the other side of the draw Lewis Kendall takes on Tommi Wesley to earn a place on the Honour Board as Links Trophy Champion. This might have been a good event to run a Club Calcutta on... maybe next year.

In the A Grade event, Steve Lambrakis, Jonathon King and Grimma are through to the semis with Raul and Tommi due to play this weekend.

Jake Findlay and Eugene Korbut await opponents in B Grade, and Luke Evans awaits his destiny as he is already through to the C Grade final and will meet Les Fekete or Matt McCaughey for a place in Sanctuary Lakes immortality!

Sammi Yang and Suzette Ma are through to the semi finals in the Women's event, with other matches still to play.

Graded semi finals are due to be played by February 9th!

"The ST190's deeper face is not just useful from the tee - it also gives the clubface a larger frame that functions more like a driver for higher ball speed. Normally that is compromised by a higher sweet spot and additional backspin, but by using our carbon composite crown and Wave Soleplate, we were able to combine high ball speeds with an efficient ball flight."
