

SLC NEWSLETTER 28 DECEMBER 2018

Santa delivers a $50k Grant

Santa came early to SLC when he delivered a gift in the form of a $50,000 Grant to assist in the Driving Range Upgrade!

Sport Australia's "Move It Aus" – Community Sport Infrastructure grant program experienced overwhelming interest with over 2,000 applications submitted. The program, through the Australian Sport's Commission, released the list of successful applicants in late December.

The Grant will assist in funding an upgrade to the driving range to encourage increased availability and utilisation by the public, including those with disabilities.

The upgrade will include;

- Increased artificial grass hitting area
- Increased and resurfaced grassed hitting area
- Improved target area lighting
- Building alterations to allow disabled access, including disabled toilet facilities
- Security camera, light and sound installation

It is expected that the upgrade programme will begin in February 2019.

From Golf Victoria - The project will allow the Club to focus on the delivery of national participation programs and initiatives to the broader community and engages children, women and girls and older Australians into the game leading to increased participation in golf. We commend the Sanctuary Lakes Club on this project that will improve the facilities for the local community.

Golf Results

Last Wednesdays Stableford event was well supported as usual with 71 entrants teeing it up. There were some fantastic scoring under perfect conditions.

The winner of A Grade on the day with a tremendous score of 42points was Dale Roseburgh, who birdied his final 3 holes to break par for the first time, with a 71 off the stick.

The B Grade winner also with a score of 42points was Wayne Gilmore, and Ian Pannell took out C Grade with a solid 40points.

Xiem Hong claimed the Pro Pin and will have $49 credited to his Golf Shop account.

Thursdays Twilight competition was played around our picturesque front nine, and with a solid 20points, Zach Mclsaac claimed the win.

Tricky conditions greeted the 114 strong field for Saturdays Stableford competition.

A Grade was won by James Cooper with a solid score of 36, playing off a Scratch handicap.

Joanne Tey continued her fine run of form with another win by taking out B Grade, also with 36 points.

And with the days best score by an absolute mile was Travis Santoso who won with a whopping 44 points.

Jeff Hanna claimed the $97 Pro Pin bounty with a great shot on the 6th to 167cm.

On Sunday, a great field of 135 players were greeted with benign conditions and without the courses usual defence of the wind, our golfers had a field day.

David Kim, playing off a handicap of 4, posted an incredible score of 44 points to claim the A Grade spoils. That translates into a 68 off the stick. All David's hard work on the range certainly paid dividends.

Besting that score though was our B Grade winner, Carlo Chincarini. Playing off 14, Carlo racked up 45 points, and also added $75 to his Golf Shop account for the grade win.

Also Congratulations to Thomas Orndahl who claimed C Grade on the day. Thomas scored 40 points off a 29 handicap, but wont be off 29 for much longer after that some great playing.

Gavin Ho took out the Pro Pin on the 2nd and will collect $116 for his efforts.

Boxing Day had 106 contestants who were keen to work off their Christmas indulgences. In the individual section, there was some fantastic scoring. Congratulations to David Brand who off a 5 handicap, scored 42 points. B Grade was taken out by David Galligan, also scoring 42 points. Seems that his recent lessons with Marcus have his game heading in the right direction. And Luke Evans narrowly shaded Anthony Di Battista on a countback after both players were locked on 38 points.

The 2ball Aggregate was taken out by Dale Roseburgh & Theo Hourmouzis who had 76points between them and won on a countback.

The Pro Pin bounty of $102 was claimed by Masashi Yoshizawa after a shot to 161cm, but a lesson was learned by Kayden Ling who made a Hole In One but hadn't entered the Pro Pin. Think he'll be paying the $2 entry in the future.
