On the 6th hole Matt Louey had his distances correct hitting it to 446cm away. Well done Matt.

Matchplay Note

MATCHPLAY RESULTS

We are now up to the semi-finals week for our Links Trophy and graded match play events. So far we have seen some close matches as well as the opposite with people winning by a considerable margin. Matches in the Semi Finals are due to be completed by 23rd February.

Links Trophy – GROSS MATCHPLAY:

4 players remain for the semi-final of the Links Trophy. We will see Alex Franklin vs Johan Gwee & Lewis Kendall vs Tommi Wesley.

In the quarter finals Alex Franklin won his match 3/2 over Mark Grimsditch who was the number 1 seed and Johan Gwee won 2up over Steele Denman.

I predict that this matchup in the semi-finals will be a close game so best of luck to both competitors.

Lewis Kendall was victorious 4/2 over Daniel Adem and Tommi Wesley got through to the next round as well against Imran Muftarov.

Looking forward to seeing who wins out of Lewis and Tommi in the Semi Final.

B Grade – Nett Match play

Jake Findlay is through the Final already after defeating Johnny Woodhouse during their semi-final match. Jake did this in style with a 6/5 victory. Good luck in the final Jake.

Eugene Korbut vs Adam Mallabone is the other matchup in the semi-final round. Both of these players won by about the same margins in their Quarter final games so this should make for an interesting Semi-Final.

C Grade – Nett Match play

The C grade Match play has been completed right up to the final, this match is to be played by the 2nd March 2019. This game will feature Matthew McCaughey and Luke Evans.

New Member Induction

Last night 5 new members were inducted into the Club by Dan Cromie.

Please welcome Peter Hall, Vickee Lynch, William Findlay, Craig Conlin and Richard Thomas.

Volunteers

Thanks to all our volunteers who helped make the Vic Open qualifier a success. A group of the usual suspects and a couple of newbies were on hand to weed bunkers and give the course a general tidy up to assist Mark and his crew in course presentation.

On match day, we had a host of our Members volunteer for a number of duties including offering their hand at caddying. Steve Kitvanoski certainly backed the right runner, pictured here with Stephanie Bunque who carded a 3 under 69 to tie for first and qualify for the Vic Open for the first time.

We thank all those who volunteered their time recently, and on an ongoing basis.

Further, Members will notice a new sand box on 15. Kerry Hansford is one of a number of our members who use up to 1 bucket of sand on every hole, as they fill in divots left by uncaring golfers.

This new box on 15 Tee now means that Kerry and other members can refill their buckets after playing the 14th. We thank all our Members who do the right thing and fill in their divots. And we would like to give a big shout out to our members who do 'extra' to try and keep our course looking it's best.

The Qualifiers

Following a 5 hole play off on Monday, to get her name as the fifth alternate (emergency) Stephanie Kyriacou carded a 4 under 69 on the Creek Course to sit inside the top 10!
